

The mob started indulging in arson and looting in different parts of the town. Police opened fire. 26 shops and a few houses were gutted. 1 person died of stabbing and 1 of bullet injury.

(6) Aligarh (U. P. October and November 1978): Consequent to a rivalry in a wrestling bout and subsequent stabbing of a wrestler belonging to anti-social elements and his death on 5-10-78, anti-social elements resorted to arson, looting and stabbing when his dead body was taken away in a procession. 11 persons were killed and 34 injured. 56 shops/houses were set on fire looted and the loss to property was about Rs. 3.5 lakhs.

On 6-11-78, rumours spread over a stabbing incident between two persons both belonging to the minority community. Communal trouble again flared up and on 8-11-78 there were several incidents of stabbing and firing by members of public. Police had to open fire. 16 persons lost their lives and 32 were injured in the riots. 34 houses were affected by arson and looting and the loss to property is about Rs. 1.75 lakhs.

Government of Uttar Pradesh have appointed Shri S. K. Verma, former Chief Justice of the Allahabad high Court, as Commission to inquire into all aspects of the disturbances in Aligarh and submit his report within a period of 4 months.

2. During the corresponding period in 1977, there were 86 incidents of communal nature of which 5 were major.

3. Communal riots have occurred on comparatively small grounds and do not reveal any common pattern. The State Governments are taking all possible steps and remedial measures to check these incidents. The Central Government have also given necessary help to the States by deploying units of CRPF and BSF.

Chief Ministers' Conference on law and order situation

*78. SHRI DHARAMCHAND JAIN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state.

(a) when the Conference of Chief Ministers was held to discuss the law and order situation in country;

(b) what was the nature of the discussions held and the decisions taken at the Conference;

(c) whether the reported increase in the incidents of looting and arson in the flood affected areas of Bihar and West Bengal was brought to the notice of the concerned Chief Ministers; if so, what was their reaction; and

(d) whether Government propose to hold such conferences of Chief Ministers regularly to review the law and order situation in the country; if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. D. PATIL): (a) September 23-24, 1978.

(b) The Chief Ministers gave their views on all aspects of law and order and outlined the various steps taken by them to prevent and contain communal riots, atrocities on Harijans, students and labour unrest, crime activities of Extremists socio-political agitations etc. A number of Chief Ministers pointed out that the existing provisions in the new Code of Criminal Procedure were inadequate for taking effective preventive action against anti-social elements and criminals. District Magistrates and Superintendents of Police should be given more powers to enable them to take effective preventive action against such elements. According to some of them, existing provisions regarding bail enabled affluent and dangerous criminals to remain at large making investigation difficult. The need for expeditious trial and disposal of cases by courts was also underlined.

(c) The crime situation in the country including Bihar and West Bengal was discussed. The Chief Ministers of Bihar and West Bengal gave their assessment.

(d) Such conferences will be convened as and when necessary.
