Reduction in the import duty on Stainless Steel Sheets

807. SHRI SANAT KUMAR RAHA:
SHRI BHOLA PRASAD:

Will the Minister of STEEL AND MINES be pleased to state;

(a) the estimated annual loss of revenue to the exchequer as a result of the reduction in customs duty on the import of stainless sheets; and

(b) the extent to which the reduction in the import duty has resulted in decrease in price of stainless steel utensils?

THE MINISTER OF STEEL AND MINES (SHRI BIJU PATNAIK): (a) On June 15, 1977 import duty on stainless steel plates, sheets and strips was reduced from 320 per cent ad-valorem to rates ranging from 40 per cent to 120 per cent ad-valorem. On July 15, 1977 import duty on stainless steel plates, sheets and strips for certain end-uses including manufacture of utensils was increased to 220 per cent ad-valorem. The quantum of loss of revenue due to these duty changes will depend upon the effective changes in actual import of stainless steel plates, sheets and strips. No precise estimate on this is available.

(b) A clearer picture about the decrease in the prices of stainless steel utensils, as a result of the changes in the duty rates, will emerge only after change has been in operation for a reasonable period of time.
