

be maintained unless there is complete understanding by the recipient country; and

(b) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI H. M. PATEL): (a) and (b) It is in the issue of the Hindustan Times dated 7th November, 1977 (and not in the issue of the Hindustan Times dated 12th November, 1977, as stated in part (a) of the Question) that a news item appeared wherein it had been stated that "the British Overseas Development Minister has given virtual notice to India that the current level of British aid may not be maintained unless there is continued understanding by the recipient country".

In the issue of the Hindustan Times of the 12th November, 1977, however, the Hindustan Times Correspondent has himself reported that a spokesman of the Ministry of Overseas Development of the British Government had denied that any ultimatum had been given.

Both the Governments are equally keen to ensure the fullest utilisation of aid extended by Britain to India and various proposals in this context are under the consideration of the Government.

Tourist traffic to Assam

587. SHRI NABIN CHANDRA BURAGOHAIN: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether foreign tourist traffic to Assam has increased considerably in the recent months; and

(b) if so, whether the India Tourism Development Corporation has formulated any proposal to establish hotels in the State for meeting the needs of the tourists?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI PURUSHOTTAM KAUSHIK): (a) As the statistics of foreign tourist arrivals are analysed on an all India basis and not State/city-wise, it is not possible to indicate whether or not foreign tourist traffic to Assam has undergone any change over a specified period.

(b) The India Tourism Development Corporation plans to construct a hotel in Gauhati on the site on which the Department of Tourism had started constructing a tourist bungalow. The project will be taken up for implementation subject to the availability of funds.
