

SHRI PURUSHOTTAM KAUSHIK: I may inform the hon. Member that it is not possible for the Central Department of Tourism to take over all the places of tourist importance. We have taken over places which have the potential for attracting international tourists. For that purpose, definitely, in Orissa there is the triangle, Bhubaneswar, Puri and Konarak. Department of Tourism has already spent some money in the past as provided in the Five-Year Plans. So far as the development of these three places is concerned, for the information of the hon. Member I may state that expansion of a travellers' lodge at Bhubaneswar at a cost of Rs. 40 lakhs is already going on and I think the work will be over by the end of this year. About Konarak and Puri, I have already stated. About construction of a hotel at Puri, I had a talk with the Governor of Orissa during my last visit and there was a proposal that the old Raj Bhavan at Puri will be transferred to ITDC and after renovation, it will be run as a hotel by the ITDC. We are still in correspondence with the State Government and the State Government seems not inclined to hand over the old Raj Bhavan to ITDC.

SHRI LAKSHMANA MAHAPAT-RO; He did not say anything about Chilka. He has not even gone there.

SHRI PURUSHOTTAM KAUSHIK: So far as Chilka is concerned, it has not yet been able to attract international tourism. Even then, we have given the State Government a motor launch costing Rs. one lakh or so. We have already given this to the State Government.

SHRI LAKSHMANA MAHAPAT-RO; That was a decade back.

SHRI R. NARASIMHA REDDY: Sir, development of tourist centres all over the country is a very important aspect in the development of tourism and in earning foreign exchange and other benefits. In this connection, I would like to know one thing. The Andhra Pradesh Government have already sent several proposals and the same reply is given that there are no-funds. Have the Government studied and identified the important tourist centres all over the country and have they planned to develop them by giving at least 50 per cent rebate to the States?

SHRI PURUSHOTTAM KAUSHIK: Sir, so far as surveying places of international tourist attraction is concerned, we have asked the State Governments to give a perspective plan in respect of their own States. We have received them and these are under examination. No sooner, we take up this matter with the Planning Commission, than all the plans submitted by the States will be taken into consideration, and, according to their importance, international, national or local, the Central Tourism Department will take necessary action.

MR. CHAIRMAN; Question Hour is-over.
