Reduction in the size of buffer stocks of foodgrains

23. SHRI PRAKASH MEHROTRA:
SHRIMATI LAKSHMI KUMARI
CHUNDAWAT:
SHRI SAWAISINGH SISODIA:

Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE AND IRRIGATION be pleased to state whether Government are contemplating any measures to reduce the large buffer stocks of foodgrains to manageable proportions during the year?

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND IRRIGATION (SHRI SURJIT SINGH BARNALA): The recommendations made by the Technical Group on Buffer Stocking Policy regarding the desirable size of buffer stock are under the consideration of the Government. Meanwhile, Government have initiated a number of measures to increase the off-take and to strengthen the public distribution system. The question of return of the balance quantity of Russian Wheat Loan in the form of wheat has also been taken up with the USSR Government. It is expected that the stocks held by the Government agencies would show a decline and reach manageable proportions by the end of the year.

Withdrawal of Mini Rail from Delhi Zoo

24. SHRIMATI LAKSHMI KUMARI
CHUNDAWAT:
SHRISAWAISINGH SISODIA:
SHRI PRAKASH MEHROTRA:

Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE AND IRRIGATION be pleased to be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to withdraw the mini rail from the Delhi Zoo;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(c) what is the manner in which the mini rail is proposed to be utilised after its withdrawal from the Zoo?

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND IRRIGATION (SHRI SURJIT SINGH BARNALA): (a) and (b) In accordance with a decision taken to remove the railway from the Delhi Zoo, the Ministry of Railways have already started dismantling the railway, which is expected to be completed by the end of July, 1977. The reasons for this decision are that the railway had adversely affected the alighting in the Zoo of a large number of migratory birds, while many of the animals in enclosures near the rail track appeared to be visibly disturbed. It was also apprehended that it might affect the breeding of animals in the Zoo.

(c) The track material, girders and rolling stock released from removal of the railway from the Delhi Zoo are proposed to be used by the Railways to meet their own requirements.
