

ing Agencies near Delhi/New Delhi Railway Stations. Some complaints have, however, been received regarding malpractices in railway reservations indulged in by unauthorised travel agencies operating 'through private individuals.

(B) Some cases of malpractices and blackmarketing in railway reservations by individuals connected with these travel agencies at Delhi/New Delhi stations have come to notice.

(c) Constant vigilance is being maintained at Delhi/ New Delhi Railway Stations to check the activities of these elements. During the summer rush, open surveillance by vigilance staff was arranged at the Reservation Offices to detect and prevent such malpractices. Co-operation of C.B.I and local police is also sought for action under law against these elements. Action as warranted is taken against railway staff coming to notice for collusion with these elements.
