

Statement

(a) Two Research Stations namely Central Muga and Eri Research Station, Titabar (Assam) and Regional Tasar Research Station, Imphal (Manipur) have been set up by the Central Silk Board in the North-Eastern Region. The station at Titabar is headed by an Assistant Director with five research sections each headed by a Senior Research Assistant and other Junior supporting technical staff. The Imphal station is headed by a Deputy Director and has five scientific sections with the two Senior Research Officers and six senior Research Assistants and supporting junior technical staff.

(b) The research stations undertake programmes of research as approved by the Research Co-ordination Committee of the Central Silk Board and cover mainly the improvement of the host plants for eri and muga, evolution of improved high yielding races of eri and muga worms and introduction of improved techniques of rearing, reeling and spinning. The Regional Tasar Research Station at Imphal is primarily attending to the problems concerning the oak tasar development in the region for which there is great potential. The research projects undertaken by the station are problem-oriented and deal with improving the emergence of moths, rearing methods, improving the reelability of the oak tasar cocoons. The Imphal station is also engaged in training of personnel at lower levels required by the States for manning their departmental activities.

REFERENCE TO THE PRIME MINISTER'S BROADCAST

श्री हर्षदेव भालवीय (उत्तर प्रदेश) :
मान्यवर, मैं एक बात उठाना चाहता हूँ

SHRI MOHAMMAD YUNUS SALEEM
(Andhra Pradesh): Sir, with your permission I want to bring to your notice that last night the Prime Minister has given an interview on the television ...

श्री उपसभापति : माननीय सदस्य देखें,
हमारे कुछ नियम हैं कि सदन में किस प्रकार
से मामले उठाए जाने चाहिए

SHRI MOHAMMAD YUNUS SALEEM:
Sir, at Zero Hour we are entitled to raise such questions. This is a very important question. You will kindly hear me. This is a very important matter.

SHRI MOHAMMAD YUNUS

श्री उपसभापति : प्वाइंट ऑफ आर्डर
उठा रहे हैं श्री चौधरी, अब वह बोलेंगे ।

SALEEM: Sir, when the Parliament is sitting, the Prime Minister should have made the statement on the floor of the House first.

SHRI NRIPATI RANJAN CHOU-
DHURY (Assam): Sir, I am on a point of order. I beg of you to permit me to say a few words. Sir, yesterday the Prime Minister has made a policy statement.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: No, no. Listen to me.

SHRI NRIPATI RANJAN CHOU-
DHURY: Sir, I am raising a point of order on his point. I am not raising any issue.

(Interruptions),

Sir, you kindly listen to me and then rule it out.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I will request the Members to kindly listen to me. If the point to be raised is so important, they could at least have taken me into confidence and not spring a surprise on me. I cannot say anything without knowing what point they want to raise. I will not come in the way of any Member raising any important matter.

I will only see in what way it could be done. But I must be taken into confidence and we should co-operate in these matters. I would again request you to let me know the points which you want to raise and I will consider the ways and means by which they can be brought before the House.

SHRI MOHAMMAD YUNUS SALEEM: Sir, I concede that there has been an omission on our part but the question is of such a vital importance that it should be allowed to be raised and you should be fair to us. Sir, this is the question of privilege of the House, of which you are the custodian.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: If it is a question of the privilege of the House, this is a very important matter, which should not be casually raised like this. >

SHRI MOHAMMAD "YUNUS" SALEEM: Sir, you should permit me. I want to speak only for one minute. Sir, this is a very important matter. (Interruptions)

SHRI G. LAKSHMANAN (Tamil Nadu): I want to ask the hon. Members whether this behaviour of theirs is correct.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: I request the hon. Members to give me in writing the points which they want to raise.

SHRI MOHAMMAD YUNUS SALEEM: Sir, I will abide by your advice.
