

the privileges of hon. Members and it will be my continuous and incessant endeavour to regulate the "proceedings of the House in a way that would be in keeping with the highest traditions of this noble institution and further enhance the prestige and the dignity of the office of the Deputy Chairman. But this can only be possible if every section of the House as well as individual Members extend to me their full co-operation and support in conducting the business of the House in a manner that would do credit to us all. I will depend upon the co-operation from every Member of this House, on whichever side of the House he may be sitting.

Once again, I am thankful to you for the words and sentiments you have expressed, to those who have sponsored me and to those who have supported me, and I assure you all of my complete devotion to the service of this House.
