623. SHRIMATI LAKSHMI KUMARI CHUNDAWAT :
SHRI SAWAISINGH SISODIA :

Will the Minister of REVENUE AND BANKING be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the newly recruited personnel in the State Bank of India are required to deposit lump sum security at the time of their recruitment ;

(b) if so, what is the amount of security required to be deposited with the Bank and what is the procedure for its refund ; and

(c) whether Government propose to review this procedure for the benefit of prospective employees who are not in a position to arrange the same ; if so, what are the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF REVENUE AND BANKING (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) and (b) The State Bank of India has reported that it obtains security deposit of Rs. 1000/- from those candidates who are appointed as Probationary Officers or as Cashiers in the bank. In the case of Probationary Officers this amount is refunded after the completion of 2 years probation period. In the case of Cashiers, the amount is refunded in the following cases :

- (1) on transfer to clerical wing ;
- (2) on promotion and
- (3) on retirement.

(c) In the case of candidates who are not in a position to lodge the cash security immediately on appointment, the bank permits the candidates to furnish in lieu of cash security an undertaking to deposit the required amount in suitable instalments from their monthly salary and also furnish two sureties for the purpose.

Indo-British talk on avoidance of double taxation

624. SHRI HIMMAT SINH :

SHRI HARSH DEO MALAVIYA
SHRIMATI LAKSHMI KUMAR
CHUNDAWAT :

Will the Minister of REVENUE AND BANKING be pleased to state :

(a) whether a delegation from India held talks with the representatives of the U.K. Government in London in July, 1976 on the subject of a comprehensive double taxation avoidance convention ; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard ?

THE MINISTER OF REVENUE AND BANKING (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) Yes Sir.

(b) Agreement was reached on a number of issues but mutually acceptable solutions could not be arrived at regarding some other points and these were reserved for discussion in the next round of talks. Details of a double taxation avoidance agreement are disclosed only after a complete agreement has been negotiated and it comes into force. It is, therefore, not possible at this stage to disclose the details of the points on which agreement has been reached so far.
