1076. SHRI J. S. ANAND: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government had agreed to meet losses of the peasants in border areas of Punjab during the 1971 war, where crops were lost or next crops could not be sown for reasons of defence;

(b) whether it is also a fact that only 50 per cent of the losses have been paid so far;

(c) whether it is also a fact that despite estimates of total losses having been assessed and forwarded by the civilian authorities of the border districts to the Defence authorities concerned more than 1½ year ago, the Defence authorities have not cleared the papers and the peasants remained deprived of the balances of payments due to them; and

(d) if so, by when these cases will be cleared?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SARDAR SWARAN SINGH): (a) Yes Sir. A procedure has been approved by the Ministry of Defence for ex-gratia payment to the peasants for the losses incurred by them on account of the damage caused to standing crops by defensive preparations of the Army during the last Indo-Pakistan Conflict. This Scheme covers also losses incurred by them where they were prevented from sowing new crops due to their land being under military occupation.

(b) to (d) According to the procedure approved, claims for ex-gratia payment are required to be verified by the local civil authorities. So far 531, claims have been accepted by the Army authorities and sanctioned for payment. 300 claims are pending with them awaiting sanction. Most of these claims are expected to be sanctioned without much delay. A large number of claims, however, are pending with the local civil authorities for verification. In order to settle these claims as quickly as possible, they are being reviewed jointly by the officers of the Directorate of Military Lands and Cantonment and the local officers of the Government of Punjab.
