Financial difficulties of Calcutta University

342. SHRI DWIJENDRALAL. SEN GUPTA : Will the Minister of EDUCATION, SOCIAL WELFARE AND CULTURE be pleased to state :

(a) what is the criteria for declaring a University, a National University;

(b) what are the extra financial benefits a 'National University' gets as compared to other Universities;

(c) what are the reasons for this discrimination;

(d) whether Government are aware that Calcutta University is facing a grave financial difficulties; and

(e) if so, what steps Government have taken to assist the University in this crisis?

THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION, SOCIAL WELFARE AND CULTURE (PROF. S. NURUL HASAN: (a) to (c) There is no concept of a 'National University' in the Constitution of India. However, under entry 63 of List I of the Seventh Schedule, Parliament may by law declare an institution to be an institution of national importance. When an institution is so declared; Parliament has the exclusive power to make laws in respect thereof,

(d) and (e) Calcutta University, being State University, receives maintenance grants from the Government of West Bengal. It is, therefore, the responsibility of the State Government to take care of the financial difficulties of the University. For its development programmes, the University receives grants from the University Grants Commission, on the basis of an approved, pattern of assistance. 74 RSS/74—5
