MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Bhupesh Gupta, you wanted to mention something.

REFERENCE TO SERIOUS SITUATION IN WEST BENGAL DUE TO FLOOD AND CYCLONE

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA (West Bengal): Sir, I was in West Bengal only yesterday. West Bengal is passing through extremely serious situation as a result of flood and cyclone. North Bengal has already been seriously affected and so is now South Bengal. The other day, there was cyclone which caused very heavy damage to crops and cattle. I do not know exactly how the situation has been assessed by the Government of India. This matter calls for the attention of the Government.

Sir, several districts of the State out of 415 districts have been very severely affected and millions of people are facing destitution. They have lost their home; they have lost cattle in addition to the fact that they have been suffering from rising prices and scarce rice and other essential commodities. On top of it, Sir, this is a terrible blow of natural calamity.

We understand. Sir, from the reports that have come, that the relief measures are thoroughly inadequate. Monies are not being sent and here, Sir, I demand that the Central Government itself should take initiative and make necessary funds available to the West Bengal Government and also to ensure that these funds are properly distributed.
