

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: All that I say is I gave this instance. These are simultaneous, almost concurrent offences. Now these people took away a married woman from Kasha station in broad daylight and five of them raped her. They threw her out. Now, they have not even been arrested, while the people who had killed a person in Durgapur have all been released on bail at the intervention of Writers Building. Now, you can understand what is happening in West Bengal. It is not a question of the individual. The law and order situation has so much deteriorated; dacoities, robberies, rape, pilfering of all types—all kinds of things are happening. Women cannot go out after eight of the clock, we have been told. It is not I, many people are saying it.

We will not get Sasanka Chakravarti. But we know that behind that there are some INTUC people. Others are also condemning it—I must say, Congressmen. I think the Central Government cannot keep quiet in regard to West Bengal any more. They should find out how things are happening. There is an extremely serious situation. There is a serious breakdown in many places not only of law and order. Certain elements of goondas, rapists, bandits, hooligans, pick-pockets, dacoits, all these are on a rampage. And the police has been paralysed. The police is siding with some of them. The administration has collapsed...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Prof. Sher Singh.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: I know you have called the Minister. But do I have an assurance about this from the Central Governments? At least, you tell the Government.
