Prosecution launched against steel dealers of Delhi

1356. SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA:

DR. Z. A. AHMED:

SHRI S. G. SARDESAI:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to refer to the answer to Starred Question 33 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 23rd July, 1974 and state whether any prosecution has since been launched following the searches of the residential and business premises of the iron and steel dealers in Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI K. R. GANESH): The searches in these cases were made in June, 1974.

After a search, the first step is to estimate the undisclosed income in a summary manner and to pass an order u/s 132(5) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, for retaining such of the seized assets as are considered to be sufficient to satisfy the tax liability on the estimated undisclosed income and any existing tax liability. This order has to be passed within 90 days of the search. The regular assessment proceedings are then taken up, where necessary by reopening the case. It is after these proceedings are completed establishing that there has been a false verification in the return of income, that prosecutions are launched.

In these cases, action was duly initiated for passing orders under section 132(5) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. These orders will be passed in early September.

The Iron and Steel Control authorities will also take such action as they consider necessary.
