

by the Departments and their advice were sought from time to time while preparing and formulating the Draft Plan. The Planning Board have made a significant contribution in formulating various projects and programmes under different sectors.

Maharashtra.—State Planning Board considered and approved the Draft Fifth Five Year Plan of Maharashtra State and gave guidance to District Planning Board in the formulation of Fifth Five Year Plan of each district.

Gujarat.—Draft Fifth Five Year Plan was finalised before the Board started functioning but Annual Plan (1974-75) was considered by the Board. At the draft stage it guided the formulation of Tribal Area sub-plan and has initiated preparation of contingency plan and plan for Drought Prone Areas.

Assam.—Planning Board was responsible for formulating the Draft Fifth Five Year Plan of the State.

Manipur.—The State Planning Board was not constituted at the time of the formulation of Fifth Five Year Plan.

Meghalaya.—The Board has been intimately associated with the formulation of plan proposals for the State and these were finalised in consultation with the Board.

Nagaland.—The Planning Board formulated guidelines and priorities for the Fifth Plan. The Draft Plan was finalised by the Board before presentation to the Planning Commission.

Tripura.—In formulating the Fifth Five Year Plan of the State, the State Planning Board has discussed at length the overall strategy of development of Tripura. They have considered the priorities of sectoral planning within the frame work of National Plan and advised the Government to draw up plans keeping in view the structural imbalance of Tripura's economy. They have also suggested the outlays as would be necessary for the Heads of Development during the Fifth Five Year Plan period.
