 CHOUDHURY :

Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state :

(a) whether the minimum needs programme evolved by the Planning Commission would remove regional imbalances and give the rural areas amenities like roads, drinking water, schools and hospitals; and

(b) whether Government propose to include these programmes in the Central Development Plan instead of including them in State Sector Plan?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRI MOHAN DHARIA) : (a)
 It is envisaged that the National Programme of Minimum Needs would contribute significantly to the reduction of regional imbalances by providing facilities for elementary education, health, nutrition, rural water supply, rural roads, home sites for landless labour, rural electrification and environmental improvement of slums.

(b) The National Programme of Minimum Needs will be a distinct but integral part of the Fifth Five Year Plans of States and Union Territories, and special care will be taken for their effective implementation.

Closure of newspapers on account of newsprint shortage

 MUSAFIR :

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state the names of newspapers recently closed down due to shortage of newsprint?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI I. K. GUJRAL): No newspaper has closed down for shortage of newsprint although the following newspapers missed publication for short durations:

- (i) 'Nutan Saurashtra', -Gujarati Daily, Rajkot
 (ii) 'Rajasthan Patrika' Hindi Daily, Jaipur
 (iii) 'Nav Bharat', Hindi Daily, Bhopal
 (iv) 'Madhya Pradesh Chronicle', English Daily, Bhopal

The shortage of newsprint experienced by some newspapers is due either to consumption in excess of their entitlement or the non-availability of newsprint due to interruption of imports.
