

of eight hours or at the rate of 12 per cent of a mills' packed production during 1971. Non-fulfilment of the compulsory obligation entails a penalty of 1 per sq. metre. Out of the funds thus collected, the mills which offer to produce controlled cloth in excess of their obligation will be paid an incentive on 90 paise per sq. metre on the controlled cloth produced by them in excess of their obligation.

(c) Under the new scheme for distribution of controlled cloth which came into force with effect from 1st November, 1972, the sale of the entire production of controlled cloth is undertaken through :

1. Mills' own retail shops.
2. Super Bazars in the cooperative sector.
3. National Cooperative Consumers' Federation and the chain of cooperative institutions affiliated to them.
4. Fair price shops run under the aegis of the State Govts.
5. Any other agency in the cooperative sector specified by the State Government concerned.

It is within the discretion of the State Governments to arrange for the sale of controlled cloth in rural areas through cooperatives or fair price shops.
