

22.5 million hectares. Besides, efforts are being made to promote fertilizer use in proper balance suited to the needs of soil and the crop alongwith appropriate micro-nutrients and other inputs. To facilitate this, soil testing facilities have been provided and the farmers are given training in the efficient and balanced use of fertilizers. In addition, development of minor irrigation facilities, intensification of plant protection measures, land development and soil conservation are some of the other important measures undertaken to increase productivity of land.

(c) The per hectare yield of foodgrains has increased from 629 kgs. in 1965-66 (the year before the introduction of the new agricultural strategy) to 858 kgs. in 1971-72.

TRANSPORT AGENCY SYSTEM

1301: SHRI SARDAR AMJAD ALI :
SHRI N. R. CHOUDHURY:

Will the Minister of SHIPPING AND TRANSPORT be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware of the transport agency system now prevailing all over the country ;

(b) if so, whether Government have made any study of the effect of the system on the small transport operators of the country;

(c) if so, the results thereof; and

(d) whether Government propose to legislate prohibiting such system in the interest of the small operators?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SHIPPING AND
TRANSPORT (SHRI M. B. RANA) :

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c). The Government have not made any independent study of the working of the goods booking agencies. However, in the evidence tendered before the Road Transport Taxation Enquiry Committee, it was alleged that the margin of profit retained by these middlemen was high. The Committee suggested in its report that it is very desirable that these middlemen should get only a fixed percentage by way of commission and that the business of booking agencies should be regulated and brought under control by a licensing system.

(d) Provisions have been included in Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, vide Section 66A, empowering the State Governments to make rules for introducing a system of licensing for Booking Agencies. Model Rules on the subject were circulated to the State Governments for guidance in January, 1970. According to the information so far, available, about ten State Governments/ Union Territories have already published the necessary rules. The matter is being pursued vigorously with the remaining States/Union Territories.
