Advertisements

It is the policy of Government to make increasing use of small and medium newspapers, particularly those published in Indian languages, for Central Government advertisements.

Towards this end, the Directorate of Advertising and Visual Publicity have taken a number of steps which include:

(a) confining mass educational campaigns like Family Planning to regional language newspapers and small papers;

(b) release of advertisements in big size to small papers and small sized advertisements to big papers;

(c) regular recruitment advertisements like those of Union Public Service Commission, Indian Council of Agricultural Research, Directorate General of Employment and
