

(a) whether the Interlocutors appointed to meet the separatists in Jammu and Kashmir were briefed about the 1994 resolution passed by the Parliament vis-a-vis Kashmir;

(b) whether they were briefed by Government about India's stand on Pakistan being a non-player in Kashmir affairs;

(c) whether they have been authorized to make public statements even before the talks began or made some headway;

(d) if so, whether Government is aware of the pitfalls of such an authorization; and

(e) if not, whether Government has taken up the matter with them for seeking role of Pakistan in Kashmir affairs?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI AJAY MAKEN):

(a) and (b) The Interlocutors upon their appointment were suitably briefed by the Home Minister, officials in the Union Home Ministry and the Chief Minister of Jammu and Kashmir on various aspects of the historical and current perspectives relating to Jammu and Kashmir. They were also provided with relevant briefing documents and data to facilitate their work. The Interlocutors are eminent and knowledgeable people and fully aware of their mandate.

(c) and (d) The Interlocutors are not restrained by the Government in meeting all sections of the public including the Press. The Government is aware that some of the Interlocutors have expressed some views before the media.

(e) The Interlocutors are fully aware of the official Indian position regarding the role of Pakistan in Kashmir affairs. The Government would closely examine the reports submitted by the Interlocutors from time to time.
