(d) The approved financial outlay of scheme is around Rs. 1,579 crore. After detailed consultations with nine coastal States, four Union Territories, Coast Guard and Indian Navy, the Coastal Security Scheme Phase-II has been finalised and approved. This scheme was discussed in the fourth meeting of the 'National Committee on Strengthening Maritime and Coastal Security against threats from the Sea' headed by Cabinet Secretary on November 23, 2010. All the senior officers of the State Governments were apprised of the scheme. There is institutional mechanism for coordination among different Central and States' security agencies.

(e) The implementation of the scheme will be done by the concerned coastal States and Union Territories.

Appointments in RAW

2423. SHRI PRAVEEN RASHTRAPAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Ministry is aware about an article "Greying Eminence" in Outlook dated 8 November, 2010;

(b) the reasons why officers in Research and Analysis Wing (RAW) are appointed and re-appointed after retirement ignoring the efficiency and seniority of those who are due for promotion; and

(c) why young and fresh blood is not allowed to work in an important agency like RAW?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI AJAY MAKEN):

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The information cannot be divulged in public interest.

Extensions to officers in RAW and NTRO

2424. SHRI PRAVEEN RASHTRAPAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that extensions to certain officers in Research and Analysis Wing (RAW) and National Technical Research Organisation (NTRO) after retirement has created problem in the functioning of these agencies; and

(b) whether it is also a fact that despite few appointments not approved by the Union Cabinet, the said officers were hired by NTRO as consultants?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI AJAY MAKEN):

(a) and (b) Divulging informations on this subject may not be in public interest.

Release of aged prisoners from jails
