Implementation of Coffee Debt Relief Package, 2010

3103. SHRI B.S. GNANADESIKAN: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether the implementation of the Coffee Debt Relief Package, 2010 has run into trouble as the Reserve Bank of India is unwilling to treat the non-performing assets of coffee growers as on June, 2009 as standard assets;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is a fact that outstanding loan in the coffee sector are estimated at Rs. 1900 crore and small coffee growers account for Rs. 1100 crore; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and the details of action taken by Government for small coffee growers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI JYOTIRADITYA MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) and (b) The Coffee Debt Relief Package — 2010

(CDRP, 2010) is being implemented by the Coffee Board in coordination with the Banks in accordance with the extant guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) from time to time. As regards the benefit of waiver to small growers, the Coffee Board is also receiving reimbursement claims from the banks towards the Government share of the waiver. So far, claim statements from 18 banks involving a sum of Rs. 53 crores benefiting 23,652 small coffee growers have been received. As regards rescheduling of eligible amounts, the Convener, State Level Bankers Committee (SLBC), Karnataka had finalized draft guidelines in consultation with other bankers and Indian Bankers Association (IBA), whereon the RBI has advised that correctly reflecting the asset quality in balance sheets and providing to them as per the prudential requirements is a must to preserve the robustness of the banking system.

(c) and (d) As per available records with the Coffee Board, the estimated overall liability of the coffee growers is around Rs. 1200 crores. Besides the relief given to small coffee growers in the form of CDRP, 2010, to the tune of Rs. 241 crores covering 74,929 small coffee growers (95% of the total beneficiaries), various assistance and incentives are being provided to them through Development Support Scheme of the Coffee Board of India during Eleventh Plan.
