- (6) Shri M. A. Chidambaram, Joint Chief Officer, Agriculture Credit Department, Reserve Bank of India, Central Office Garment House, Bombay-18.

- (7) Shri S. E. Jogeph, Director, Planning Commission, Yojana Bhavan, New Delhi.

- (8) Shri C. Venkataraman, Director, Department of Expenditure, Ministry of Finance, New Delhi

- (9) Kumari M. Seth, Commissioner, (Industrial Cooperatives), Ministry of Industrial Development New Delhi.

- (10) Shri S. Padmananbha, Director, (Handlooms), Office of the Textils commissioner, Bombay-20—Convener

2. The terms of reference of the working Group are as follows:—

- (a) To make a quick assessment of immediate problems faced by the handloom and powerloom weavers in the various States, and suggest measures for the smooth development of the two sectors, with special reference to—

(i) the price and distribution policy in regard to raw materials required by the handloom and powerloom weavers;

(ii) facilities for credit, processing and marketing required by the handloom and powerloom weavers in different States;

(iii) elimination intermediaries now existing in the two sectors;

(iv) bringing the handloom and powerloom weavers under the public sector umbrella so that their credit, processing and marketing requirements are properly pooled and satisfied and

(v) ensuring a fair wage to the handloom and powerloom weavers for their efforts ?

(b) to draw up a realistic and time-bound programme of action to be taken in each state for the development of each sector during the Fourth Plan period; and

(c) to consider any other attendant or ancillary matter connected with the above and to suggest suitable measures.

3. The voluntary scheme for supply of cotton yarn of counts 60s (and not 10s) and above was brought into force from the 1st August, 1972. This scheme is constantly under review by a Watch Dog Committee set up under the Chairmanship of the Textile Commissioner. The allotment of yarn made under the Scheme upto the 31st August 1972, amounted to 13.72 lakh Kgs. The regulated prices of different counts of yarn under the Scheme differ from mill to mill as they are worked out by taking the difference between the highest contract price as on 1st June 1972 (or the nearest date) and the highest contract price for the relevant count and form of packing during January, 1972, and deducting 50 per cent of the difference from the former price.
