(b) whether the provisions of "Hon'ble conditions" and "Satisfactory placement" were kept/being kept in mind by the Central (Surplus Staff) Cell authorities while providing alternative jobs to the surplus staff; and

(c) if so, the reasons for not providing "Honourable conditions" and "Satisfactory Placement" to the staff declared surplus from the Office of the Chief Settlement Commissioner, Department of Rehabilitation with effect from the 3rd May, 1972 (A. N.) although the said staff have 15-20 years' service to their credit ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL (SHRI RAM NIWAS MIRDHA) : (a) Yes, Sir. The scheme for redeployment of surplus staff provides that the surplus staff, during their stay in the Central Cell, would continue to receive pay and allowances in their previous scales. If necessary, where placements have not been decided upon and some delay is anticipated on this account, special leave may be granted to the surplus personnel, which would be on full pay and allowances and would not be debitable to the normal leave account. The outside limit for such special leave of an individual shall not exceed the prescribed maximum of 6 months. Every effort will be made to arrange individual placements to match the pay scale of the individual with the pay scale of the recipient post as far as possible. Where, however, exact matching is not possible, and the pay
