

merit finance deserves the most serious consideration. Besides, the Trade and Development Board has been invited to create a special body within the machinery of UNCTAD in order to find practical solutions to the debt servicing problems. In the field of shipping and freights, the need for an unanimously acceptable code of conduct for Liner Conferences has been recognised and the General Assembly has been requested to convene as early as possible in 1973 a Conference of Plenipotentiaries for adoption of such a code. Agreement has also been reached at the Conference on special measures for the least developed among developing countries and the land-locked countries respectively. The Conference also endorsed a Comprehensive Work Programme on Transfer of Technology for improving the access of developing countries to technology and strengthening their scientific and technological infra-structure.

(b) The Conference reaffirmed the target accepted by the developed market economy countries at the Second Session of the Conference, to provide annually to developing countries one per cent of their GNP as development assistance. The Third Session of the Conference called upon those developed countries which are unable to achieve this target by 1972 to endeavour to attain it without further delay and in any event not later than 1975.

(c) While there was no resiling from past commitments there was great deal of hesitation on the part of the developed countries to undertake fresh obligations.]
