Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that railways could not provide adequate number of wagons to supply coal from the coal fields to different thermal power stations which caused recent power crisis in various regions ;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(c) what steps have been taken by Government in this regard ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MOHD. SHAFI QURESHI) : (a) No, Sir. (b) and (c) Do not arise.

In fact Railways moved substantially more coal to the Power Houses from all the fields in 1971-72 as compared to the previous year as is indicated in the Statement laid on the Table of the Sabha.

STATEMENT

Railways moved substantially more coal to the Power Houses from all the fields in 1971-72 as compared to the previous year, as may be seen from the figures given below:—

		in terms of wagons per month) (Approximate.)
		1970-71	1971-72
West Bengal-Bihar	fields .. ..	26,547	29,583
Central India Coal	fields .. ..	1,476	3,001
Pench & Chanda	fields .. ..	4,202	6,130
Singareni fields	.. ..	4,563	4,797

Recent power crisis in the various region was caused by reasons other than the shortage of rail transport like low levels of water in the hydrogeneration reservoirs, breakdown of Atomic Power Station at Tarapore inability of some power houses to draw adequate coal and lignite from the normal planned sources by means other than rail etc.

During the period of this crisis railways have made arrangements to give increased supplies not only to those power houses which take coal normally by rail but also to those which never planned to take their coal supplies by rail and did not therefore have adequate rail facilities for any large scale supplies by rail. In doing so Railways had to undertake a lot of irrational, operationally inconvenient, uneconomical and unplanned movements at the cost of movement to the other consumers.
