It has, however, been provided that the medium of instruction at this stage shall be either English or Assamese and that option will be given to the students to answer questions in English or Assamese or Bengali. As regards Dibrugarh University, the medium of instruction will be Assamese for the Pre-University course from the 1972-73 session and for the degree course from the 1974-75 session. The students shall, however, have the option to write answer scripts in Assamese or English.

It is, however, for the State Governments to safeguard the interests of linguistic minorities.
