THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS/ गृह मंत्रालय में राज्य मंत्री (SHRI K. C. PANT) : (a) and (b) The Administrative Reforms Commission in their report on Centre-State Relationships have made the recommendation that the proposed inter-State Council should formulate guide-lines in regard to the manner in which their discretionary powers should be exercised by the Governors. The report is under the consideration of the Government.

The question of evolving guide-lines that a Governor ought to follow in appointing a Chief Minister, when no party secures an absolute majority at a general election, was examined in 1967, and the views of five leading jurists were obtained. The matter was further discussed at meetings in February-March, 1968, with leaders of opposition parties. The participants of the meetings were later requested to confirm whether the Governors could be informed of the points on which there had been general consensus. Replies were received from only a few of them and hence the matter was not further pursued. However, copies of the correspondence with the jurists have been forwarded to all the Governors, for their information.

The President has appointed a Committee of Governors to study the role of the Governors under the Constitution. The work of the Committee is in progress.
