

1069-70 and 1970-71. A copy of the review has been forwarded to the Government of West Bengal with a request to undertake a detailed appraisal of the State's Fourth Plan including re-definition of inter-sectoral priorities as may be called for, bearing in mind the major shortfalls under important programmes/projects as revealed in the review and the need for re-orientation of the State's Fourth Plan as pointed out in the review in the light of the objectives outlined in the President's Address to Parliament on the 23rd March, 1971.

The major shortfalls which have come to the notice of the Planning Commission fall under the following heads of development:

- li) Area Development;
- fii) Co-operation;
- (iii) Large & Medium Industries;
- fiv) Village & Small Industries;
- (v) General Education;
- (vi) Health: and
- (vii) Calcutta Metropolitan District Area Programme.

The reply of the State Government is still awaited.
