REFERENCE TO EXPUNCTION OF CERTAIN REMARKS MADE BY AN
HON. MEMBER ON THE 10TH JUNE, 1971

SHRI ARJUN ARORA (Uttar Pradesh) : I want to make a very humble submission about certain inaccuracies in the record of the proceedings of the House yesterday. While trying to put a supplementary on Starred Question No. 387 I made a certain remark about a blouse. You were pleased to direct me to withdraw the remark and as soon as you said : 'You withdraw this', I withdrew it. The correct procedure is to mention the remark in the House and the fact that 'it is withdrawn but the proceedings on page 59 of the Uncorrected copy which is available does not mention my remark. On page 60 your direction : 'You withdraw this' and my submission that 'I withdraw this' has been recorded. That puts me in a very awkward position. If somebody ever reads the proceedings, he may be left speculating as to what I said.

SHRI PITAMBER DAS (Uttar Pradesh) : It can go to his credit that many people may be speculating things which he is not capable of saying.

SHRI ARJUN ARORA : Only Mr. Pitamber Das can say things in a poetical language. The correct procedure of recording the proceedings is, when a remark is made, it is recorded. If the Chair directs the Member to withdraw it, the direction and the Member's 'Withdrawal, if he obeys the Chair, is also recorded.

k SHRI MAHAVIR TYAGI (Uttar Pradesh) : Unless it is expunged.

SHRI ARJUN ARORA : Expunction arises only if the Member refuses to abide by the direction of the Chair. I request you to examine it because my information and I have expert opinion to support it, is that when a Member obeys the Chair and withdraws the remark, the remark cannot be expunged. Sir, you did the correct thing by not ordering the expunction but later I find that the Vice-Chairman, Shri Akbar Ali Khan, who sits next to me should have been more considerate, ordered the expunction. He said, 'before I place the next week's programme. . .

SHRI A. P. CHATTERJEE (West Bengal) : What is all about this blouse affair ?

SHRI ARJUN ARORA : . . . before : the House I have been directed by the Chairman that a certain remark made by Mr. Arjun Arora about the dress of a Lady Member be expunged. I direct that that portion be expunged. Sir, this is beyond Mr. Akbar Ali Khan's powers though I like him very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN : Not he; I directed him.

SHRI ARJUN ARORA : Sir, it is beyond his powers, the more so when Mr. Akbar Ali Khan was not in the Chair. The gentleman, your Good Self, who was in the Chair decided then and there that the remark should be withdrawn and I obeyed you. Sir, you have been kind enough to interrupt and say that you directed him. But, Sir, the Chairman is the Chairman when he is in the Chair of the House and his orders while he is sitting on the chair of the Rajya Sabha have to be obeyed by Members, by the Secretariat and even by the Vice-Chairmen but when he is in the bath room his orders cannot be obeyed in the House. When he is in the bath room he is not the Chairman.

SHRI PITAMBER DAS : He cannot make an order from the bath room; I all right, but what about the Chamber ?

SHRI ARJUN ARORA : I thank him for this very relevant interruption. The Chairman cannot direct the proceedings of the House from the Chamber. If that was so a bed could have been installed in the Chamber and the Chairman will not have to take the
