REFERENCE TO STOPPAGE OF WATER SUPPLY IN EAST BENGAL DISPLACED PERSONS COLONY AT KALKAJI, NEW DELHI

SHRI DWIJENDRALX L SEN GUPTA (West Bengal) : Mr. Chairman, Sir, I want to raise a very important question. The East Bengal Displaced Persons Colony at Kalkaji, New Delhi, is under the Ministry of Rehabilitation and has not yet been handed over to the New Delhi Municipal Committee. Matters like its water supply and sewage disposal are under the control of the C. P. W. D. and were being done so long through the agency of the N. D. M. C.

About 500 families have already constructed their buildings and have settled there. Suddenly, to the great inconvenience of all the residents there, the water supply was stopped from last night following a dispute between the C. P. W. D. and the N.D.M.C., or for any other reason, the intake of water to the underground tank at the colony has been stopped or drastically curtailed.

The residents were being made to pay 78 paise per kilo litre as water charge, which is about five times the normal rate. They did not grudge that also, as water is a must for anybody on earth whatever its price. So, there was nothing involved on payment of water bills.

I would like the Rehabilitation Minister and the C.P.W.D. Minister to take notice of the serious situation and see that water supply is immediately restored. It is criminal indeed to stop water supply in this hot summer in Delhi in particular.
