(d) the number of such applications sanctioned since December, 1970, to date as compared to the corresponding period last year ?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE/
वित्त मन्त्री

(SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN) : (a), (b) and (d). Statement is laid on the Table of the House.

(c) The information is not readily available and the same will be placed on the Table of the House when received.

Statement

(a) and (b). The Reserve Bank of India has not fixed any ceiling for borrowings by scheduled commercial banks for financing of small scale industries. They can borrow from the Reserve Bank, at the bank rate, irrespective of their net liquidity ratios, to the extent of the increase in their short term advances to small scale industries covered under the Credit Guarantee Scheme, over the stipulated base period. Banks can also obtain refinance from I.D.B.I. at a concessional rate of 5 per cent in respect of their term loans to small industries covered under the Credit Guarantee Scheme, provided the borrower is charged an effective rate of interest not exceeding $8\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The procedure for availing of refinance from I.D.B.I has been simplified since December 1970 and refinance for amounts upto Rs. 2 lakhs is almost automatic. The market position was, however, a little tight and this also must have affected the small scale industrial units, in that all the demands for credit may not have been adequately met ; according to the Reserve Bank of India, no bank has so far complained that the general credit stringency has affected the flow of bank credit to small scale industrial projects.
