(a) whether any diplomatic efforts are being made by Government to recover the lost territory of India now under possession of the Chinese Government; and

(b) if so, what progress has been made so far in this regard?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI SURENDRA PAL SINGH): (a) and (b) The Government of India's policy is to seek return of these territories through peaceful negotiations. However, no progress has been made so far in this regard.

SECOND REFINERY AT ASSAM

179. SHRI MONORANJAN ROY: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND MINES AND METALS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Prime Minister made a statement on the floor of this House announcing the Government's decision to set up a second oil Refinery in Assam;

(b) if the answer to part (a) above be in the affirmative, whether the Minister be pleased to state whether the Prime Minister at the time of her recent visit to Assam denied the report that the Centre would set up a second oil refinery in Assam; and

(c) whether it is a fact that the Prime Minister in her speech at a public meeting in Gauhati on October 3, 1970, said that the demand for the refinery is a "small" matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND MINES AND METALS (SHRI D. R. CIIJAVAN): (a) The Prime Minister had made a statement on 5th December, 1969, in the Lok Sabha that Government had decided that the present refining capacity in Assam should be increased by a little over 1 million tonnes in the Fourth Plan period, either through expansion or the establishment of an additional refinery, as may be found economically feasible.

(b) It is not correct to say that the Prime Minister during her recent visit to Assam denied the report that the Centre would set up a second oil refinery in Assam. She said that the entire issue was under consideration.

(c) What the Prime Minister said was that a second Oil Refinery was not likely to solve all the problems of the State. It might help only in a small way in solving the problems of development and of providing employment opportunities to the people of the State.

She exhorted the people of Assam, specially the youth, to work whole-heartedly for a higher goal with a view to fulfil the hopes and aspirations of the people of Assam.
