INCREASE IN WATER TAX BY KANGSABATI PROJECT AUTHORITIES IN WEST BENGAL

551. DR. DEBIPRASAD CHATTOPADHYAYA : Will the Minister of IRRIGATION AND POWER be pleased to state the reason for recent increase in tax for the water supplied by the Kangsabati Project in West Bengal ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF IRRIGATION AND POWER (PROF. SIDDHESHWAR PRASAD) : The Government of West Bengal have so far not been levying any water rates on the areas irrigated by the Kangsabati Project. Irrigation projects involve large investments and their facilities are available only to the people in the command areas. It is, therefore, appropriate that the beneficiaries should pay for them to the maximum extent possible and not impose a burden on the rest of the community. The Government of West Bengal have, therefore, proposals under consideration to levy water rates on the Kangsabati Project irrigation areas, just as they are already levying water rates on area irrigated by the Mayurakshi, Damodar and other projects in the State.
