

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI VIDYA CHARAN SHUKLA): (a) Yes. Sir.

(b) Broadly, the representations relate to non-provision of facilities for education at the primary and the secondary stages through the media of minority languages, shortage of linguistic minority teachers, shortage of text-books in minority languages, non-provision of facilities for use of minority languages for official purposes; inadequate facilities for broadcast in minority languages and discrimination in recruitment to services.

(c) The Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities, appointed under Article 350-B of the Constitution, looks into these representations, brings the complaints to the notice of the State Governments and other authorities concerned for report and redress. Attempts are also made to persuade the State Governments, in the course of discussion during the meetings of the various Zonal Councils, to meet the demands in genuine cases. Annual Reports are submitted by the Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities to the President. These reports are placed before Parliament and copies thereof are also sent to the State Governments.
