SATEMENT

Some Memoranda have been received making the following three recommendations (i) Spctial tribunals, enjoying the confidence >f minorities should be appointed, instead of single member Commissions. The Commission of Inquiry appointed by the Central Government on 1st November, 1967 consists of Shri Raghubar Dayal, a retired Judge of the Su ireme Court, Col. B. H. Zaidi, M.P. and Shri M. M. Phillip, formerly Secret; ry to the Government of India. The Commission appointed by the Govenment of Gujarat also consists of thre: members including a serving Judge o' the Supreme Court. Thus, wherever practicable Commissions consisting of m< re than one member are appointed by Government to inquire into Communal disturbances; (ii) Special Courts shoi Id be constituted for summary trial of offences committed during the course of communal disturbances. State Governments appoint Additional Juc ges and Magistrates, wherever necessary, to expedite trial of cases arising ou of communal disturbances. The qi estion of undertaking legislation to constitute special courts with special procedure is under examination ; (iii) A speical tribunal should be appointed fu ly empowered to take action against Government, organisations, or individuals found to be responsible for such disturbances. Neither would it be possible under law to constitute such tribunal, nor does the Government agree mth the reasoning that has prompted tie recommendation.
