

an ad hoc increase in pension from, September, 1969;

(b) if so, the consideration on which such ad hoc increase was granted;

(c) whether it is a fact that ex-gratia pensioners of the Railway department will not get the benefit of such increase; and

(d) if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS
(SHRI GULZARILAL NANDA)- (a) Yes.

(b) So far as pensionary benefits are concerned, the orders issued from time to time* by the Ministry of Finance on the civil side are followed in toto on Railways. The increase was obviously granted to provide relief to the low paid regular pensioners.

(c) Yes.

(d) Ad hoc increase in small pensions is applicable to regular pensions and not to special or ad hoc pensions. It was, therefore, decided in consultation with the Ministry of Finance that this increase is not applicable to ex-gratia pensions granted to the Railway servants, who retired prior to 1.4.1957, in addition to their full entitlements under the contributory provident fund system. *-1
