TRIBUTES TO MAHATMA GANDHI

MR. CHAIRMAN : It is our sacred duty to recall in this House in this Gandhi Centenary year the debt the nation owes to the Mahatma, and to pay our homage of love and reverence to the memory of the Father of the Nation. It is aptly said that Gandhiji was one of the greatest men not only of our times but of history, and belongs not only to India but to the whole world. His legacy to posterity has been a source of enrichment in many spheres of life in our country and abroad. He gave mankind a way of life based on spiritual values and ethical values. He demonstrated in his own life the irresistible power and potency of truth and non-violence in combating and overcoming evil in all its forms. These were the weapons he used and forged for the use of the masses whom he led against racism, colonialism, discrimination, and injustice of every kind. It was Gandhiji's clarion call for freedom that pulled the teeming millions of our countrymen out of their smugness and apathy into action and helped them secure their birth-right, Swaraj. He led them to their goal through the hard path of truth, Ahimsa and sacrifice. When freedom was won and the Constitution of India was on the anvil, it was Gandhiji who threw his weight on the side of adult suffrage by declaring that he would "plump for unadulterated adult franchise for both men and women" and put them all on the register of voters. Thus did Gandhiji uphold the dignity of the individual and invest the common citizen with a special importance and stature in our Constitution. His blessings and support were in a large measure responsible for one of the most salient features of our Constitution namely, equality between man and man. Non-violence was the principal tenet of his creed, and for the transformation of society parliament became an effective instrument of peaceful change and forum for resolving all differences and conflicts by debate and discussion.

These are indeed great things for the cause of democracy. Let us hope and pray that the spirit of the Father of the Nation will ever be with us and illumine our paths towards peace, progress and prosperity. I now place the following Resolution before the House and request that it may be passed all Members standing.

"That this House, on the occasion of the Centenary Year of Mahatma Gandhi, pays its respectful tribute to the memory of the Father of the Nation who led the country to Swaraj by non-violent means, who infused a new spirit into the masses, who uplifted the teeming millions of the oppressed and the down-trodden, who awakened the national conscience of the people and who inspired the people with a spirit of dedication and service;

places on record its deep gratitude to that apostle of Ahimsa who crusaded for peace, justice and equality, and gave to the strife-ridden world the message of universal brotherhood and humanism and rededicates itself to promote the high ideals of truth, non-violence and service to the nation and to humanity for which the Mahatma lived and sacrificed his life."

The Resolution was adopted, hon. Members standing.
