

(c) Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan has intimated that Vice-Principal/ Senior Teachers look after the work of the schools in which the posts of Principals are vacant and hence the question of any vacuum in KVs on account of vacancies of Principal does not arise.

Status of Mid-day Meals scheme

1803. SHRI JAYANTILAL BAROT: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the percentage utilization of funds allocated for Mid-day Meals during the last five years, State-wise;

(b) the allocation of funds during the current financial year, State-wise; and

(c) the percentage of children still not covered under this scheme, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) During last five years, Central assistance to State under the Mid-day Meals programme was provided mainly in kind— in the form of free foodgrains, payment for which is made directly to Food Corporation of India (FCI). Only subsidy for transport of foodgrains is provided to concerned State/District agencies on re-imbusement basis.

State-wise figures of allocation and offtake of foodgrains, and national-level figures of financial allocation and its percentage utilization for the scheme are given in the enclosed Statements I and II respectively. (See below).

(b) State-wise allocation of foodgrains for 2004-05 is given in the enclosed Statement-III (See below). In addition, monetary Central assistance will be given under the scheme from this year to meet cooking cost @ Re. 1 per child per school day. States have been requested to submit detailed proposals for determining quantum of Central assistance for this purpose.

(c) All children eligible under the scheme are receiving either cooked meal or foodgrains. States are to provide cooked meal to all children not later than January, 2005.
