RE. NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE OFFICE OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA (West Bengal) : Mr. Vice-Chairman, with your permission I wish to invite your attention to a matter which concerns very intimately this House. For the last few days we have been reading in the newspapers that the Congress Party has been discussing a name for the Vice-Presidency. Because under the Constitution, the Vice-President happens to be the Chairman of this House discharging functions analogous to those of the Speaker in the other House, it is meet and proper that the Opposition should be consulted. As you know, in the other House when the Speaker's nomination is considered, no matter by which party, more especially the ruling party, always consultation takes place and the Government party itself takes the initiative. That is the convention. I do not see why there should be a departure from this convention in this House having regard to the fact that we are also concerned with the Chairman of this House
