SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN DEFENCE EQUIPMENTS

♦538. SHRI SYED HUSSAIN :
SHRI GURCHARAN SINGH:

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state the steps so far taken by Government towards the achievement of self-sufficiency in defence equipments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE (DEFENCE PRODUCTION) IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI L. N. MISHRA) : A statement is laid on the Table of the House.

STATEMENT

The steps so far taken towards the achievement of self-sufficiency in defence equipment are, broadly, the following :—

Existing production capacity has been modernised and expanded to a substantial extent and new lines/units of production, wherever justified, have been set up. This would be clear from the fact that since 1962 seven departmental factories have been set up, in addition to the M.I.G. complex; three more are under different stages of establishment; the value of production of defence items has increased steadily from about Rs. 50 crores in 1961-62 to an estimated Rs. 170 crores in 1968-69. In recent years, the utilisation of the potential in the public and private sectors of the civil industry, for defence purposes, has progressively increased. Constant efforts are made to develop and productionise indigenous equivalents of modern defence equipment with such improvements and modifications as may be necessary. Where-ever foreign collaboration was essential and available, it has been availed of. There is also a continuous attempt to increase the indigenous content of the various sophisticated equipment. Modern methods of production and industrial management are being progressively introduced in the Defence Units.
