

introduction of mechanisation in the Traffic Accounts Offices of the Indian Railways; and

(b) if so, the details of the reports submitted by the respective Accounts Officers for each zonal railway and the action taken by Government thereon ?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (DR. RAM SUBHAG SINGH) : (a) and (b) In connection with the simplification of accounting procedure on Railways as recommended by a Director on Special Duty, who was specially appointed for this purpose, a good deal of preparatory work had to be done before new accounting machines arrived from 1963-64. To accomplish this preparatory work competently and quickly a selected Assistant Accounts Officer was placed on special duty on each of the Zonal Railway. These Officers have completed their preparatory work and the simplification of the accounts procedure has been progressed in well defined stages. The Accounts Officers on Special Duty were not required to submit any formal reports—their principal assignment being preparation of the ground for introduction of the simplified accounting procedures as smoothly as possible on each of the Zonal Railways.
