

(c) Appointment to the various grades of the Central Secretariat Services are made against the specified number of duty posts sanctioned from time to time in various cadres. Accordingly promotions could also be made against the vacancies in the respective grades as and when they become available. Since promotion is not automatic and depends upon the availability of vacancies in the next higher grade; no precise time limit can be indicated for such promotion.

CORRESPONDENCE COURSES

*496. SHRI P. CHETIA: Will the Minister of EDUCATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether the correspondence courses for the degree examinations conducted by various Universities are running successfully;

(b) if so, whether Government propose to start these courses for the Post-graduate examinations also; and

(c) if so, in which subjects and in which Universities?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION (SHRI BHAGWAT JHA AZAD): (a) The correspondence course started in 1962-63 in the university of Delhi has been quite successful. It is too early to comment upon the courses started during the current session in the Rajasthan and the Punjabi Universities.

(b) A few proposals to this effect are under consideration.

(c) The Delhi University is considering the extension of correspondence courses to the M.A. level. The subjects, however, have not yet been decided.

The Meerut University proposes to start courses for M.Ed. and M.A. degrees for which the subjects have not yet been decided.

The Kurukshetra University proposes to start the courses for M.Ed. degree, as well as M.A. degree in Economics, History, Political Science and Hindi.
