SEPARATE GOVERNOR FOR NAGALAND

*567. SHRI R. P. KHAITAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to refer to the reply to Unstarred Question No. 104 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 1st May, 1968; and state:

(a) whether Government have since taken a final decision on the demand of the Nagaland Assembly for a separate Governor of Nagaland; and

(b) if so, whether a separate Governor is being appointed?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN): (a) and (b) Government have not agreed to the demand for the appointment of a separate Governor for Nagaland.

श्री आर० पी० खैतान : माननीय मंत्री जी से यह पूछना चाहता हूँ कि जब सारे राज्यों में अपने अपने राज्यपाल हैं, हरियाणा जो अभी नया राज्य बना है उसके लिए राज्यपाल नियुक्त हुए हैं तो नागालैंड जिसका बहुत दिनों से डिमान्ड

चल रही है कि एक गवर्नर उनके लिए बनाया जाय, इसमें सरकार को क्या हिचकिचाहट है जिसकी वजह से यह नहीं हुआ है?

SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN: This question was very much debated when the Nagaland State Bill itself was discussed and debated on the floor of the House. The then Prime Minister had said that there was nothing to prevent Nagaland from having a separate Governor. Our own assessment for the present is that one Governor is a facility for both the States.

SHRI A. P. JAIN: The Eastern region has a number of independent political units, some Central territories and others States—Assam, Manipur, Tripura and Nagaland. Have the Government examined the possibility of having a common Governor in order to establish some sort of geo-political unity?

SHRI Y. B. CHAVAN: Sir, Government has not considered the question having a common Governor for all the areas, but in the context of Assam reorganisation, having some sort of an advisory body for the purposes of planning and attending to the problems of security is under examination. But the Government has not come to any conclusion.
