[THE DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI MORARJI R. DESAI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Generally the complaints relate to misappropriation of funds by payment of false claims, false T.A. Bills, false agency commission, etc. The observations of the Company concerned are called for by the Controller of Insurance on the complaint and where it is found that there may be a basis for the complaint, the possibility of further action like ordering an investigation under Section 33 of the Insurance Act is considered. However, in most cases the complaints are of a vague nature and in any case even if the complaint might be felt to be genuine the Controller of Insurance has at present no powers under the Insurance Act to inspect the books or seize papers for further necessary action. A Bill to amend the Insurance Act, 1938, to clothe the Controller of Insurance with adequate powers for closer supervision and control over the insurers is already before the Parliament.]

views of all the State Governments have been ascertained; and

(c) if so, what is the reaction of the State Governments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH, FAMILY PLANNING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT (DR. S. CHANDRASEKHAR):

(a) Yes.

(b) All the State Governments/ Union Territories have been requested to give their views on the draft Bill.

(c) Only some of the replies have so far been received and the States concerned are generally in favour of the basic change in raising the limits for age of marriage. Comments from other State Governments and Union Territories are awaited.
