INDIAN ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE

533. SARDAR RAM SINGH : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that against the authorised strength of 3035 Officers, the Indian Administrative Service is presently manned by 2580 Officers only; and

(b) whether the gap has arisen as a result of fall in the recruitment to this grade of Officers; and if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI VIDYA CHARAN SHUKLA) :

(a) The Indian Administrative Service is presently manned by 2,637 officers against the authorised strength of 3058.

(b) No, Sir. From a strength of 2575 in 1966, the strength has risen to 3053 in 1968, partly due to the creation of a new cadre for Nagaland, extension of the Delhi-Himachal Pradesh cadre to the other Union Territories and the normal expansion of cadres in the other States. The gap is mostly due to this increase in the cadre strength during the past few years.
