485. SHRI T. SIDDALINGAYA : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state .

(a) whether it is a fact that the Prime Minister has been emphasising that the future promotions of departmental candidates should be on the basis of merit and that less weightage should be given to seniority; and

(b) if so, the action, if any, taken by Government in this direction?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI VIDYA CHARAN SHUKLA):

(a) and (b) Promotions to selection posts are made on the basis of merit within a certain field of choice which, whenever possible, should extend to five or six times the number of vacancies expected within a year. If, however, there is an officer of outstanding merit, he may be included in the list of eligibles even if he is outside the normal field of choice. It has also been decided to apply more rigorously the merit criterion in respect of higher level posts under the Government of India. Promotions to other posts which are not selection posts are made on the basis of seniority subject to rejection of the unfit. In certain posts, promotions are made on the basis of competitive examination limited to departmental candidates in the lower grade fulfilling certain criteria of eligibility. There is also a scheme of merit promotion and advance increments for certain scientific and technical staff. Since the existing system already placed the required emphasis on merit, there is no proposal at present to modify it.
