

regarding the collections. What is the order of deficit that you are facing ?

SHRI MORARJI R. DESAI : The Budget is coming near. It is not possible to give all these figures. It is for the hon. Member to have intelligent anticipation.

SHRI HARISH CHANDRA MATHUR : In view of the deteriorating economic situation in the country because of the fall in revenues and the increase in expenditure, may I know what positive decisions were taken at the National Development Council for remedying the situation ?

SHRI K. C. PANT : As indicated in the statement, the decisions were that the Central and the State Governments should make every effort to maximise tax collections and at the same time try to confine expenditure within the resources available.

MR. CHAIRMAN : The Question Hour is over.

I am grateful to hon. Members of all sections of this House for having co-operated with me in finishing many questions. Unfortunately, we have finished 13 questions but 13 is a lucky number so far as I am concerned.

SHRI NIREN GHOSH : You should also make Ministers not to evade questions like the Finance Minister.
