

WORKERS' EDUCATION SCHEME

1307. SHRI P. K. KUMARAN: Will the Minister of LABOUR AND REHABILITATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that progress in regard to Workers' education scheme has not been very satisfactory;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(c) what steps Government propose to take to make the scheme a success?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR AND REHABILITATION (SHRI JAISUKHLAL HATHI): (a) to (c) The Workers' Education Scheme has made steady progress since its inception in 1958, and so far 5,68,439 workers have been trained. A Committee was appointed by the National Commission on Labour, in April 1967, to undertake a comprehensive review of the Scheme in its various aspects. The question of making any changes in the Scheme will be considered on receipt of the report of the Commission.
