DEVELOPMENT OF SUGAR INDUSTRY

♦425. SHRI K. S. CHAVDA: the Minister of FOOD AND AGRICULTURE be pleased to refer to the answer given to Starred Question 1 in the Rajya Sabha on the '22nd May, 1967 and to state:

(a) what steps Government have taken or propose to take against State Governments which have used sugar Cess Fund as general revenue and not for the development of sugar industry; and

(b) what incentives are being given to States which have implemented the policy of Developing cultivation of Sugarcane and the sugar industry?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD, AGRICULTURE, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND CO-OPERATION (SHRI ANNASAHEB SHINDE): (a) Sugarcane cess/purchase tax is a tax levied by State Governments under entries No. 52 and 54 of List II—State List in Schedule VII of the Constitution of India. The State Governments which merge the cane cess/purchase tax proceeds in the general revenue spend a sizeable amount on the promotion and development of sugarcane which benefits the sugar industry.

(b) Assistance in the form of subsidy and grants for development of sugarcane cultivation is given to all States in accordance with the approved pattern of financial assistance for Centrally aided schemes. No incentives are given to States for development of the sugar industry.
